

Pierre NICOLAU is a Board Certified Plastic Surgeon, trained in MONTPELLIER, France, and in England (Mount Vernon Hospital, Northwood, Queen Victoria Hospital, East Grinstead, Saint James's University Hospital, Leeds).

Past Consultant Plastic Surgeon, Plastic Surgery and Burns Unit, University Hospital Saint Louis, University Hospital Rothschild, and University Hospital Louis Mourier, Paris, and private practice in Paris and now in Spain (Figueres, Barcelona)
Member of Conseil de l'Ordre des Médecins (Paris), Col-legi de Metges de Girona (Spain), French Society of Plastic Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery SOF.CPRE. French Society of Aesthetic Plastic Surgeons SOFCEP. International Society for Aesthetic Plastic Surgery ISAPS. Society of Plastic Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery SECPRE, Spanish Society of Aesthetic Medicine SEME.

Of international renown, he has taught in 385 teaching courses and workshops, including 65 university courses, more than 220 of them dedicated to skin fillers. He has given 243 conferences and communications in international congresses, and has published 69 articles in international reviews and internet teaching courses, and 9 book chapters.

He was responsible for teaching courses in Plastic Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgery in the University Hospitals in Paris for junior surgeons, and a member of the Scientific Editorial Committee of IMCAS.

He is responsible for teaching at the University PARIS V- PARIS XII, Hôpital TARNIER – COCHIN, course on "Evaluation and Control of Injection and Filling Techniques in Dermatology and Plastic Surgery", "Biological effects of Injectable Fillers", since its beginning in 2003.