

Mr. Shaheel Chummun is a consultant cleft and plastic surgeon based in Bristol, U.K. Following his plastic surgery specialist training, he completed further super-specialist training in craniofacial surgery at the world renowned Australian Craniofacial Unit, Adelaide, Australia and Cleft Lip and Palate surgery at Guys and St Thomas' Hospital, London. He undertook further aesthetic training at the London Clinic and at The Cadogan Clinic in Chelsea, London.

He was recipient of the British Association of Aesthetic Plastic Surgeons (BAAPS)/ Scarfree Foundation Aesthetic fellowship. Mr Chummun has been awarded a Masters in Advanced Surgery in craniofacial surgery by the Macquarie University, Sydney. During that time, he won the Ethics prize for his Masters.

He has over 35 publications in peer reviewed surgical journals. He has presented at numerous national and international scientific conferences.