

Dr. Ines Verner is a certified Dermatologist working for 20 years in Aesthetic & Cosmetic Dermatology.

She is currently Immediate Past President of the European Society for Cosmetic & Aesthetic Dermatology (ESCAD) and is Professor of Dermatology and Regenerative Medicine at the University of Rome “G. Marconi” in Italy.

She is also Past President of the Israel Society for Dermatologic Surgery (2009-2013).

Dr. Verner is recognized for her expertise in Cosmetic Dermatology, Aesthetic Medicine, Lasers and Energy Based Devices. She serves as an advisor and KOL to multiple industry partners in the field and is founder of several start-up companies.

She also serves on the scientific committee of multiple congresses (e.g. AMWC in Monaco, EADV (European Academy of Dermatology & Venereology) on the editorial board of several journals (Journal of Dermatologic Therapy), wrote several book chapters and lectures and teaches Aesthetic & Cosmetic Dermatology worldwide.

Dr. Verner graduated from the University of Amsterdam Medical School in the Netherlands, then specialized in Dermatology in Jerusalem and followed a fellowship at Yale University in the USA.