

Dr Paul Charlson FRCGP DOccMed DPD DRCOG FBCAM

Paul has 19 years of experience in the aesthetic medicine. He is past President of the British College of Aesthetic Medicine and a key opinion leader for several aesthetic manufacturers. His background is in General Practice but he also works in Dermatology being an accredited special interest GP in Dermatology with the Royal College of GPs where he also an assessor.

He is a founder of the British Society of Aesthetic Examiners and Assessors and a trustee of the Joint Council for Cosmetic Practitioners which is responsible standards in the aesthetic industry.

He has clinics in Yorkshire and London.