

Associate Professor Cristian Radu Jecan.

Cristian-Radu Jecan is Head of the Department of Plastic, Aesthetic and Reconstructive Microsurgery at the University Emergency Hospital "Prof dr Agrippa Ionescu", Bucharest, Romania. He is President of the Romanian Association of Plastic Surgeons and President of the Health Minister Plastic Surgery Commission.

After graduating from Medical school at the University of Medicine and Pharmacy "Iulia Hatieganu" Cluj-Napoca, Romania he was Intern Doctor at The Children Emergency Clinical Hospital in CLuj-Napoca. He was trained in Plastic Surgery at the Plastic and Burns Surgery Emergency Hospital Bucharest. He joined an academic career at the University of Medicine and Pharmacy "Carol Davila", at the University Emergency Hospital, Bucharest. He also started a private career as Senior Consultant at the Apolo Medical Center and is founding member of the Romanian Aesthetic Surgery Society. He completed the EBOPRAS examination in 2003 and publicly defended his Thesis in 2010, particularly focused on leg reconstruction. In 2011 dr. Jecan became Head of the Department of Plastic Aesthetic and Reconstructive Microsurgery and Medical Director at the University Emergency Hospital "prof dr Agrippa Ionescu", Bucharest Romania.

His main clinical interests are centered on breast aesthetic and reconstructive surgery, facial reconstructive and aesthetic surgery, skin cancer, body contour surgery.