

Dr. Zamira Yanine is a board certified specialist in Aesthetic Medicine and a Clinical Assistant Professor of Aesthetic Medicine at Universidad del Rosario in Bogotá, Colombia.

Dr. Yanine's undergraduate degree is from Universidad Militar Nueva Granada where she completed medical school. She accomplished her Aesthetic Medicine residency program at Universidad del Rosario and is a founding member of the Colombian Society of Specialists in Aesthetic Medicine-SOCOLME, where she has participated as part of the board of directors and was President of the organization from 2009 to 2011.

Currently in her medical practice Dr. Yanine customizes skin care regimens for a wide range of skin types and offers combined treatments and technologies for non-surgical rejuvenation. After more than a decade of practice in the aesthetic field her value offer focuses in helping each of her patients to "project wellbeing" in their daily activities.