

Alina Fratila, MD

Alina Fratila, born in Bucharest, Romania, studied Dermatology at the University of Bonn, Germany. She dedicated her professional life since more than 30 years to the field of Aesthetic Dermatology and Surgery, Phlebology, Aesthetic Laser Medicine and Mohs Micrographic Surgery.

Prof. Fratila has since 2012 teaching appointment at “Victor Babes” University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Timisoara, Romania.

She is Honorary Member of “Societatea Romana de Dermatologie” and of “Asociation Argentina de Medicina y Cirurgia Cosmetica”. She served as President of ISDS from 2002-2004.

In 2004 she founded and is now director and owner of the “Jungbrunnen-Klinik”, the “Fountain of Youth” for Aesthetic and Plastic Surgery, Dermatology and Phlebology in Bonn, equipped with 14 different laser and light devices.

She has written and contributed over 150 publications, book chapters and book to the scientific medical literature. Prof. Fratila is active member in 15 International Societies, she is a very requested and respected speaker and pioneer in Germany for Laserassisted Blepharoplasty and ablative CO₂ Laser Skin Resurfacing which she is performing since more than 25 years: see “Illustrated Guide to Eyelid and Periorbital Surgery”.

Special awards:

Since 2013 Prof. Fratila is yearly voted by the “FOCUS Germany’s renowned medical list as “Top medic for Blepharoplasty, Botox and Filler”.

She received the “Erich Landes Award” at “International Darmstädter Live Symposium for Dermatologic and Aesthetic Surgery” and the “DDL-Laser Innovation Prize 2007” for the “Laserassisted Blepharoplasty” and 2010 the Award of the Romanian Health Service Medal: Ordinul "seritul sanitar" in gradul de "Cavaler" by the Romanian State President.