

Originally from Pittsburgh, PA, Dr. Finney completed his undergraduate and medical degrees at Pennsylvania State University. He completed his internship and dermatology residency at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia, PA where he served as chief resident during his final year. He also performed a postdoctoral research fellowship in eczema and allergic contact dermatitis at Rockefeller University in addition to an advanced fellowship in aesthetics, hair restoration, and skin surgery with renowned hair surgeon Dr. Marc Avram in New York. Dr. Finney works in private practice at Entiere Dermatology and is a clinical assistant professor teaching future dermatologists at Mount Sinai in New York City.

--

Robert Finney, MD FAAD

Board-Certified Dermatologist

Assistant Clinical Professor, Mount Sinai