

Prof. Dr Neha Gupta has been one of the youngest Professor and Head of Department of Dermatology at the Government Medical Institute in the state of Madhya Pradesh, India.

Now an Ex-Professor and well known practising Dermatologist with more than 10years of experience in clinical and aesthetic dermatology, she has also been a Consultant Dermatologist at various Kaya Skin Clinics.

Her areas of keen interest include trichology including interventional trichology and hair restoration, PRP and Mesotherapy, pigmentary disorders including vitiligo and melasma, acne and acne scars, antiageing therapies, lasers, microneedling, facial aesthetics, skin rejuvenation, allergies and pruritus, and Connective tissue disorders.

A Life Member of IADVL and Honorary Life Member of SAARC AAD (Association of Aesthetic Dermatology), she has been a FACULTY and SPEAKER at various National and International Conferences including EADV, IMCAS and FADS World Congress.

She has been awarded and appreciated as a REVIEWER in the peer review process for Journal of Integrated Health Sciences and has publications in various National and International journals.