

Renita Rajan

Dr Renita Rajan is a leading laser dermatologist, practising in Chennai, South India, with 17 years of experience in managing skin of colour. She has extensive experience in the use of lasers and energy based devices in Indian skin types and is the India APAC KOL for Picoway picosecond laser, and the India KOL for Starwalker laser, Alma Accent Prime, Enerjet, and Morpheus8. Her areas of interest include pigmented contact dermatitis, lichen planus pigmentosus and pigmentary demarcation lines, among other pigmentary disorders in SOC. Dr Renita Rajan is currently the Medical Director at RENDER Skin and Hair, and Curator at CHOSEN by Dermatology. Her recent publications include the largest series of exogenous ochronosis from India, and lichen planus pigmentosus to beard cosmetics in SOC.